Details of Dispute/Claim/General Complaint

Type of Dispute/Claim/General Complaint:	General Complaint
Complaint:	I have also completed all the tasks on time which were assigned to me but I can't work now with you because I have already been involved in another company. According to the evidence my total salary should have come on 30th April. (I gave my resignation letter on March 11 2023 and I served my 30 days notice period which was mentioned in the offer letter after that I worked in the office till 11 April. manager told that your total salary (March and half month April) will come by 11th May. After that called and message after 30th April then said salary will not come . after completion of work salary will come before this salary will not come. They can not force me to work after leaving the company.
